1 Silent green Kulturquartier

 Culture

Silent Green Kulturquartier is a former crematorium transformed into a cultural campus with workspaces, events, gardens, and shared community spaces.

2 Martha-Ndumbe-Platz

 Culture

Renamed from a colonial figure to honour Afro-German Nazi victim Martha Ndumbe; today a lively meeting point for families.

3 Weddingmarkt at Leopoldplatz

 Food  Social

Weddingmarkt at Leopoldplatz is a local open-air market that brings together neighborhood exchange, independent vendors, food, design, and community life.

4 Flakturm Humboldthain

 History  Nature

WWII anti-aircraft tower in Humboldthain park, reclaimed as a climbing spot and popular lookout for sunsets over Berlin.

5 Uferstudios (Uferstraße)

 Culture

Former public transport depot by the river Panke, now a hub for dance and artists beside a quiet green path.

6 U8 Line

 Transport

Running from Wittenau in the north to Hermannstraße. It connects districts like Reinickendorf, Mitte, Kreuzberg, and Neukölln. Each stop feeling like flipping to a different chapter of the city.

7 Gesundbrunnen-Center

 Shopping  Transport

Shopping centre at the Gesundbrunnen rail hub, where S-Bahn lines converge and the whole city passes through daily.

8 Panke (river and green path)

 Nature

Small river linking Wedding and Gesundbrunnen; once industrial and polluted, now a green path for walks and rest.

9 Safe-Hub Berlin

 Sport  Social  Education

Safe-Hub Berlin: sport-for-development hub where children and young people play, learn and grow, from early childhood to adulthood.
